BURGLARY.-Between one and two o'clock this morning the wife of Mr. Geo. W. Petty, who resides on Union street, between King and Prince streets, was awakened by the eries of her sick child, and upon starting up to attend to it, she was terrified to see two masked men in the room, one of them near her bed, and the other near the window. She at once grasped her husband's arm and screamed, upon which the burglars took to their heels and ran down stairs and into the back yard, wherea they escaped over a fence. Examination disclosed the fact that they had ransacked various drawers and cupboards in the house, but had gotten nothing except a small amount of money. Mr. Petty's pants and pistol were found in the back yard. Information was at once given to the police, but the burglars have not been

POLICE ITEMS.—The following cases have been tried since Saturday: John Bright, for interfering with the dog catchers, was fined and discharged. Dave Lomax, colored, for being drunk and disorderly in the market, was fined and dis-eave town. SATURDAY'S STORM .- The storm of Saturlay, which was a very moderate one, in this rity, seems to have been very severe in Wash ington and in the country back of us. In the district trees were uprooted, fences blown down and plate glass windows broken. Trigity and St. Johu's churches, in Georgetown, and St. Apn's lufant Asylum, in Washington, lost part of their roofs. In the back country, the storm was also very violent, especially on the line of Rappahannock River. Pickney is a very respectable and industrious colored man and was on his way to work, in Washington, when the accident occurred.

> THE AGRICULTURAL FAIR BUILDINGS .-- The committee appointed for that purpose opened on Saturday night the bids for ercoting the building for the Agricultural and Industrial Association on their grounds at "Peyton's Grove," at the head of King street. The coutract was awarded to Mr. Wm. F. Vincent, to creet the building, cover it with tin, according to specifications, for $1,995. The ground will be surveyed and the work commenced at once, and rapidly pushed forward to completion.

Excursions.-The annual excursion of St. Mary's Sunday School will take place to morrow at Geisboro. Meals and refreshments will be furnished by the ladies of the congregation, and everything will be done to make the occusion a pleasant one.

The select mooulight exeursion, on the steamer John W. Thempson, to-morrow night, bids fair to be a great success.

POLITICAL EXCITEMENT. -- The political feeling in this city took a fresh start on Saturday night, and the street corners and other rublic places were crowded until a late hour with the partisans of the different Congressional candi dates, all anxiously seeking news from the upper counties, where elections were held on that day. The interest continued during yesterday and to-day. CAPSIZED. - During the storm of Saturday evening a sloop belonging to and run by Capt. Hayden was eapsized off the Halfway Tree, be ween this city and Washington. Capt. Hay den and a young man named Wood were thrown into the water but succeeded in swimming ashore. The sloop was afterwards towed into shoal water and righted up.

TESTIMONIAL The success which the KENMORE HIGH SCHOOL has achieved under the energetic and consientious administration of the Principal an and his able Assistant, and the preparation and training of its pupils, who have entered to University of Virginia, have fully justified the recommendations of this excellent school to the public, at its beginning. I regard it at a very successful educational foundation, and I tractic will continue for may years to do its good work for our State and country.
